Absent mindedness is sometimes very inconvenient. Maj. Allen so found it Saturday. He stopped at the Bismarck for lunch, at which time he had $385 in his pocketbook. After finishing his meal he took therefrom $5 with which to pay for the meal. After receiving the change, the major put the same in his pocket. But for the life of him he rannot tell what he did with the pock-rtbook. Whether he left it on the ta-ble and walked off without it, or left it somewhere else, he cannot tell, but supposs he left it in the restaurant Anyway it is gone, and no one knows

PARDON FOR HARRY DUKE.

That is What Friends of the Former Bank Cashier Have Asked.

The application for the pardon of Harry T. Duke, who is serving a fouryears' sentence in the state prison for embezzlement, will be heard by the state board of pardons next Satur-day, Sept. 19. It has been rumored for some time that Duke would ask for a pardon, so the fact that the applica-tion has been filed is not a surprise to many. It is reported that Duke's friends have secured a position for him with some mining company and if his pardon is granted he will enter at once upon the duties of that position.

HEBER CITY.

TWO PIONEERS GONE TO REST

Delegates to Convention-Teachers Employed News Notes.

Special Correspondence,

Heber City, Wasatch Co., Sept. 13.-Grim reaper death has taken from our midst another of our old and respected citizens. Last Wednesday night the spirit of Aunt Jane Clyde (so-called) was called hence. She was the widow of George Clyde, who preceded her Jane McDonald Clyde was born at

Jane McDonaid Clyde was born at Crawfords Eurn, Ireland, July 17, 1827 where the early days of her youth were spent. In 1842, she, together with her father's family, (father mother, four brothers, and three sisters) united with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saluts, and soon after left their day Saints, and soon after left their home for the Gospel and emigrated to spring of 1844, after a tedious voyage of six weeks. They were at Nauvoo at the time of the Prophet's death and experienced many privations and hardships incldent to the persecution and expulsion of the Saints from that city. In the summer of 1850, the family started for Utah. Her father died of cholera on the way and was buried on the banks of the Platte river. They moved to Springville on Sept. 20, 1851 where she was married to George W. Clyde.

George W. Clyde.

In 1860, she with her husband and family, came to Heber, where she has since resided. She was the mother of nine children, six of whom are living 45 grand children and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the stake meetinghouse 2 p. m. Friday, 11th inst. A large procession of vehicles followed the remains to the cemetery.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE,

On Friday morning Daniel A, Sessions' spirit took its flight to the great beyond. He was born in Wayne county, Illinois, was a sen of Richard and Lucretia Sessions, who moved to Nauvoo in early days with the family were expelled from there by a ruthless mob in the spring of 1846.

The family came on with the Saints to Council Bluffs and when the Mormon Battalion was organized for de-cense against the Mexicans in 1846 fense against the Mexicans in 1846, the father and two sons enisted to serve their country. Richard, John and Bradley enisted, leaving Daniel A. with the family of mother and eight children. He being about 15 years of age at that time, had about all the cares of providing for the family.

The family moved to Utah in the spring of 1850 and wintered in Salt Lake City 1850-1. They moved to Provo in the fall of 1851, went through the many hardships of settling Provo City. hardships of settling Provo City. Daniel A. Sessions was in his 75th year, leaves a wife and large family to mourn his demise. Funeral to be held Sunday, Sept. 13, at 4 p. m. Mr. Sessions was a pioneer of the valley, being one of the families of 17 that stood the hardships and braving the first winter here in 1859-60, which was very severe. From Christmas to first week in March one continual freeze up. Being shut in and isolated from all outside world.

COLONIA DIAZ, MEX

Patriarch Chas. Richen Dead-Academy Opened-News Events.

Special Correspondence, Colonia Diaz, Mexi . Sept. 6 .- The people of our ward are called upon to and brethren Patriarch Charles Richen who died Aug. 27, 1903. The deceased was born at Sheepscomb, Gloucestershire, England, in the year 1828, and at the age of 21 years embraced the Gosbeing the first to accept baptism n that locality. He remained there for number of years, taking active part in the local Gospel work. In 1853 he emigrated to Utah and located in Salt Lake City, where he remained until 1861, when he was called to preside over the ward at Hennifer in Summit county, which position he held for 25 years. In 1890 he removed to Mexico, there serving as counselor to the Bishop of the Colonia Diaz ward until his promotion of Patriarch under the hands of Apostle John Henry

The deceased was the father of 15 sons, 15 daughters, many grandchildren and relatives and friends to mourn his loss. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint, universally loved and respected. QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

The people have just enjoyed a quarterly conference held at Juarz, where they were honored by a visit from El-der Rudger Clawson of the Apostles' quorum. Elder J. W. McMurrin of the Seventies and Sister Aggie Campbell of the Y.A. M. I. A. board. Those living here had to travel 150 miles to attend conference, but they do not regret the trouble and expense of the journey. NEWS EVENTS.

Giant Powder Fails to Explode and Saves

Two Hundred Lives. (Special to the "News.") Grand Encampment, Wyo., Sept. 14. -A catastrophe which might have resulted in the death of 200 men was averted by a seeming miracle at the Ferris-Haggerty mine a few days ago. A freight wagon loaded with 10 tons of giant powder overturned near the mouth of the mine and rolled down the steep embankment, but did not explode. Both shifts of men, about 200 in num were in the shaft house close by ber, were in at the time.

POOR LITTLE BABE.

It Was Deserted by Mrs. Fehr, Who

Went With Riotous Companions. The disappearance of Mrs. Fehr, an account of which appeared in Friday eve-ning's "News," has been cleared up by the police. The woman was found in a roominghouse carousing with a number of friends. It appears that when she left home she had a three-months-old baby in her care, but when she came down town and began drinking the little one was forgotten. Saturday evening the infant was brought to the police station by a woman with whom it had been left by Mrs. Fehr. The police then instituted a search for the missing woman, When found she said that the baby had been given to her on Brigham street, and that she was to be paid well to take good care of it. She said her husband had sent for her to go to Nevada and she promised to go there at once and take the child. The baby was sick and City Physician Stewart was called to attend to it. He said the little one was suffering for want of proper food. Mrs. Fehr has gone to join her husband. the police. The woman was found in a

WAS NEARLY KILLED. William Thurgood Meets With a Severe

Accident in a Mine Tramway. An accident, which came near result. ing in the death of William Thurgood, occurred at the Centennial-Eureka mine in the Tintic district Saturday morning. The man, it appears, was loading buckets in the upper orehouse at the end of the aerial tramway, when in some mysterious way his hand was caught in the cable in such a manner as to draw it toward the drum, against which his head became wedged, squeezing it severely and nearly crushing out the man's life. Thurgood's agonizing the man's life. Thurgood's agonizing screams attracted the attention of fellow workmen and he was soon extri-cated from his perilous position, al-though not until he had been seriously injured. The wedge caused by the unfortunate man's head stopped the tramway and he was found suspended by the head by those who hastened to his rescue. The injured man was brought to this city on the afternoon train and taken to St. Mark's hospital where his wounds were dressed and he was made as comfortable as possible. It was thought at first that he would surely die, but this morning it was stated that his condition showed gratifying improvement. Besides the injury to his head Thurgood suffered a crush-ed hand and broken forearm. R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2nd St. Sait Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without re-lief; recently I got a both lief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine.

One bottle cured me. I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at Z. C. M. I. Drug
